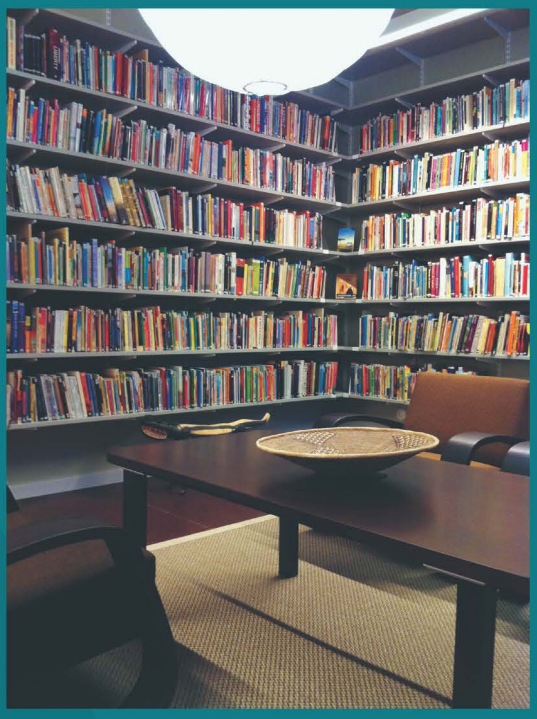
About the institute

The Nordic Africa Institute (NAI) conducts independent, policyrelevant research, provides analysis and informs decisionmaking, with the aim of advancing research-based knowledge of contemporary Africa. The institute is jointly financed by the governments of Finland, Iceland and Sweden.



About the library

The NAI Library is a gateway to printed publications, other media and e-resources, both licensed and openly accessible. Through our website you can explore and read our vast resources or navigate through our country web pages.

In addition to e-resources, the library holds:

- More than 80,000 books and 400 journals
- Official documents, statistics and censuses
- African literature, film and music
- Maps and pamphlets

In the Nordic countries: Books can be ordered via your local library. Students and researchers at Nordic higher education institutions can also register for access to licensed databases.
