

Linnéa Gelot

Linnéa Gelot (PhD) is Senior Researcher at the Folke Bernadotte Academy (FBA) and Senior Lecturer at the School of Global Studies, Gothenburg University, Sweden. Her field of expertise has been the relationship between Africa and the UN in peace and security, especially concerning Africa-led peace operations. Research interests also include critical security studies, security practice theory, regional-global governance and legitimacy. She is Principal Investigator on the project 'AU Waging Peace? Explaining the Militarization of the African Peace and Security Architecture' (with Mikael Eriksson) which employs the concepts of militarization and security practice theory to study militarizing/de-militarizing institutional discourses and practices. She has recently concluded a research brief on PVE/CVE and prevention and rehabilitation strategies of former members of Al-Shabaab in Somalia's Bay/Bakool region for the UNSOM SRSG's Research Initiative for Peace and Reconciliation in Somalia.

Linnea.gelot@fba.se